GERMANY'S DEMANDS WILL BE OUTLINED BEFORE THE REICHSTAG

Von Hertling in Address Before Reichstag May Also Reply to Recent War Aims Announced by President Wilson.

Teutons Seek Restoration of Monarchy in Russia 'Tis Said.

Ambassadors Preparing to Leave the Russian Capital Without Delay.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Count Von Hertling, the Imperial German Chancellor, will address the German Reichstag today on foreign affairs, probably with most attention to the Russian peace terms now offered by Germany.

The Chancellor has not replied to the recent war aims statements of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and if he speaks he may take opportunity to state Germany's case once more.

The general belief in embassy circles in Petrograd is that the German peace terms which the Bolsheviks have agreed to for the second time within a week, are couched in such ambiguous terms that they must be cleared up thoroughly before the actual status of Russia can be ascertained.

At a meeting at the American Embassy today the allied ambassadors determined to remain in Petrograd pending developments. Some members of the American Embassy staff, however, already have left, while other members with the Japanese and Chinese embassy members will leave for Volodga, according to unofficial dispatches.

Ambassador Francis reported today that arrangements had been made on February 23, for the American Embassy to leave Petrograd with the allied diplomats when they departed. That Germany plans to restore the monarchy in Russia is the news contained in a Petrograd telegram dated Friday. It states the former Empress Alexandra as guardian of her son the former Czarvitch is the favorite candidate for the throne.

The former emperor will not accept the throne from German hands. Word has reached this country that a conspiracy to assassinate General Tuan Chi-Jui, former premier and now war commissioner of China, has been discovered. A number of arrests have been made. The plot is believed to have been promoted by monarchists.

'NEW YORK'S OWN' THRILL CITY IN BIG PARADE

CAMP UPTON MEN PARADE IN NEW YORK

Many mothers, wives, sweethearts and children of these husky "Samboes" shed tears of joy that they could give these noble men to sustain the principles of a great nation. Ten thousand men of the Metropolitan Division in training at Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I., paid the city what may be their last visit before leaving for "over there." Less than six months ago they left New York City as civilians and returned a potent fighting machine. The picture was taken while "the boys" were parading down Fifth Avenue on Washington's birthday.

SEN. M'CUMBER TAKES SMASH AT WAR HOGS

Declares Supply and Labor Profiteers in Shipyards and Elsewhere Aid Central Powers and is Bolshevik Treason of Worst Kind.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 25. — Denouncing the Bolshevik surrender to Germany, Senator McCumber of North Dakota, today told the Senate that a Bolshevik sentiment in America was of no less danger to the cause of Democracy against autocracy.

Profiteers, labor slackers and government officials who failed to stand against them were assailed by the senator in vigorous terms.

"Unless conditions change," he said, "only a collapse of the Central Powers can save the Allies from defeat."

"Search the world's history and nothing can be found even to approach this damnable treachery—the Bolshevik surrender to the faithful and bleeding Allies—this blackest treason to country and national honor. While the Bolshevik cancer which is sapping out strength and jeopardizing our safety is confined to no class it nevertheless manifests itself in its most menacing form in supply and labor profiteering in our shipyards."

WHERE AMERICANS ARE FIGHTING

A few days ago it was learned American artillerymen had been engaged in the Champagne between Tahure and Butte de Mesnil (2). For some time our men have been holding down eight miles of the Lorraine front (3). A number of American engineers were killed or captured last fall during the British operations around Cambrai (4).

CLAIM DICTATOR IS NAMED BY RUSSIA

Gen. Brujevitch Said to Have Been Placed at Head of Government in Russia to Resist Invaders.

German Forces Penetrate 150 Miles Further Into Russian Territory.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

The Bolshevik acceptance of the German peace terms has not yet halted the German army engaged in their new invasion of Russia, and additional wide areas have been occupied by the Teutonic troops.

At the same time a hint of possible Russian resistance, despite the Bolshevik capitulation comes from Berlin in a news agency dispatch. This declares that General Brujevitch, former chief of staff to Ensign Krylenko, has been appointed successor to Krylenko in command of the Russian armies and proclaimed director.

He is declared to have ordered the Russian troops to fight to the last against the Germans.

This report is not confirmed from other sources.

One of the most notable advances by the invading Germans recorded in today's announcement was made by the forces in Volhynia, which have pushed more than 100 miles eastward from the triangle of fortresses occupied and are within 85 miles of Kiev, their objective in the Ukraine.

In the north the Germans have taken possession of Pernau, 99 miles northeast of Riga and have occupied Dortat, more than 150 miles from Riga. A flying column penetrated to Dortat, covering more than 130 miles in five and one-half days and gathering in 3,000 prisoners on the way.

HAS SPIRIT THAT WILL WIN THE WAR

A short time ago the 15-year-old son of a Fayette county farmer disappeared from home and the following day was located at the Wright Aviation Field at Dayton, where he had enlisted in the aviation corps.

Because of his tender years the father sought to obtain his release and his efforts brought the following remarkable letter from the lad:

Dayton, Ohio.

Dear Father:—I left home to do my bit. I am in the Aviation Corps. I am sorry but my country needs me. I beg your pardon sir, but is it my duty to serve my country. I am in a good place.

YOUR SON.

Because of his display of patriotism and the willingness to do something worth while for his country, the lad may not be molested.

FLOUR PURCHASES MUST AGAIN BE POUND FOR POUND

Washington insists that Ohio shall go back to the pound for pound basis, the same as surrounding states.

Therefore, effective February 24, 1918, the "fifty-fifty" rule, requiring a pound of wheat flour substitutes to be sold with each pound of wheat flour, is restored on the following conditions:

Rule 1. Retailers and all wheat flour distributors selling at retail shall sell in the proportion of one pound of wheat flour substitutes with each pound of wheat flour.

Wheat flour substitutes shall be defined under this rule as follows: corn meal, barley flour, corn starch (edible) rice, rice flour, corn flour, hominy, oat meal, rolled oats, corn grits, buckwheat flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour and feterita flour and meals.

Farmer producers may purchase wheat flour from retailers without a corresponding amount of the substitutes only on condition that they furnish to the retail-dealer a signed statement, showing that they have in their possession and are using required amounts of either corn meal or buckwheat flour, or both, not balanced by other wheat flour substitutes. Such signed statements, in every case, shall show a pound of corn meal or buckwheat flour, or both, for every pound of wheat flour purchased.

Rule 2. Potatoes, for the present, may be sold by retailers in combination with wheat flour in the proportion of four pounds of potatoes with each pound of white flour. This sale, however, can be made only when the wheat flour substitutes listed in Rule 1 are not available. In any case, no retailer shall require any potato producer who has on hand potatoes of his own raising to purchase potatoes with white flour.

AGED RESIDENT CALLED BY DEATH

Mr. George W. Hadley, one of the highly respected older residents of this community, died at the advanced age of 90 years at his home on South Fayette street, Sunday at 12:30.

For the past five years Mr. Hadley has been an invalid and almost totally blind, and for some weeks his condition has been precarious. He leaves a widow, who is in feeble health, and one brother, Hon. H. L. Hadley.

In earlier years Mr. Hadley engaged in farming on his farm near New Martinsburg and organized the first militia company in Perry Township, in the spring of '61. He was captain of the company.

A man of intelligence, and kindly ways, Mr. Hadley's friends were many both in the neighborhood of his earlier home and later in this city. He was an Odd Fellow, a member of the Wilstach Lodge at New Martinsburg.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p. m., Tuesday in Wesley Chapel, Rev. J. Verron Stone, of Chillicothe, officiating. Burial will be made in the Washington cemetery.

SON OF CHIEF MOORE MARRIED SATURDAY

Mr. Leo Moore, son of Chief D. L. Moore, was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Flowers, daughter of Mr. S. A. Flowers, proprietor of the Washington Dairy Lunch, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage performed the ceremony at the Presbyterian parsonage.

The bride was pretty in a gray tulle coat suit, with black straw hat, draped with veil.

A wedding supper at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the ceremony. White and blue was the color scheme of the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore are leaving Tuesday for Dayton, where they expect to make their future home. The best wishes of their Washington friends follow them.

SPECIAL SERVICES MARK SUNDAY

A very large and deeply interested audience filled the First Presbyterian church Sunday night to hear a splendid sermon, decidedly original in its presentation, by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage on "The Other Fellow Movement," given in response to a request from the Browning Club.

The attendance, the largest for some time, also marked a successful launching of a campaign by the M. H. G., in which the members extended personal invitations to attend evening service, the campaign lasting until Easter.

Rev. Gage brought the purpose and importance of the "Other Fellow Movement" clearly before the audience.

It is a movement begun in a quiet and unostentatious way to promulgate the creed that to think of others is life's greatest and most splendid task. Its religious background was found in the text: "Because of the people that stand by I say: that they may believe on him who sent me."

The Other Fellow Movement, because of God's word and God's truth is teaching everywhere the duty of selflessness and tending towards blessing and uplift. When the needs and the possibilities of the other fellow are met in the spirit of Christ, the great and splendid character of all history, nations and men will come to the real meaning of Christian civilization.

The one big error made by the Kaiser, responsible for the present world conflict, was in his forgetting the other fellow and the fact that he too had rights and feeling.

Splendid Sunday School Service.

Mrs. R. S. Quinn's Sunday school class of boys put on a pleasing patriotic program in the church auditorium at the Sunday school hour.

The chancel was effectively decorated with flags, red, white and blue carnations and greenery. The special feature of the decorations was an artificial cherry tree in bloom, a most ingenious piece of work by Miss Clara Zimmerman.

Dr. Carey Persinger conducted the exercises, which consisted of songs and recitations.

Hon. C. A. Reid made a stirring little talk along patriotic lines.

37 DOGS NABBED BY DOG CATCHER

So far just 37 canines have been picked up by Deputy Sheriff Nelson in his rounds after stray dogs in the city, and in the same period of time 31 new licenses have been issued, bringing the total number of dogs licensed up to 2487.

Virtually all of the tags obtained were for dogs in this city whose owners had neglected to apply for the tags at the time specified for such license granting.

NEW TREATMENT FOR RHEUMATISM CONTAINS RADIUM

Great Rheumatic Curative Property is Now Offered Public and May Be Taken at Home.

Radium for rheumatism at a price within reach of all.

That's the news which is causing a furor of discussion among those who have been enduring the aches, pains and twinges of this dreaded complaint.

Heretofore radium treatments have been enormously expensive. Either the sufferer had to journey to some hot springs to drink the water containing the radium emanations, or visit an institution known as a "Emanatorium" where the radium treatment was taken by inhaling the gas—or emanations—given off from a quantity of pure radium.

But now science has learned how to imprison these radium emanations in tablet form so that they may be taken at home with meals and the user put to no inconvenience whatever. Despite the enormous first cost of pure radium, however, these tablets, each producing four mache units of genuine radium emanation, has been placed on the market at a price no greater than that asked for ordinary remedies.

The new treatment is controlled exclusively by the manufacturers of Tanlac, the most widely known general system tonic in America. The radium tablets contain other useful ingredients and an efficacious medication for external application goes with the package which is being introduced under the name of Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment.

If you are bothered with rheumatism go get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment and get a real medicine for this complaint. The manufacturers cannot guarantee that it will cure you, but they do guarantee that if you are not satisfied with the results obtained you will get your money back without question.

Buy it at any good drug store where you buy Tanlac, the famous tonic.—Adv.

THE TWO "LION- HEARTS" OF HISTORY

Once, back in the far annals of English history, there lived a King who was called Richard, "Coeur de Lion."—Richard, the Lion-Hearted. He was big and brave and handsome. He feared no one and no thing. With the courageous spirit of the King of Beasts within his breast, he went forth and met all opponents. He fought many hard battles.

But in the end he conquered his opponents and gained peace and happiness. He had battled for the right! Such a character is the one portrayed by William Farnum in his great William Fox picture, "The Heart of a Lion." He is Barney Kemper, of the north woods; farmer, lumberman, doctor.

Barney Kemper is big and brave and handsome.

He fears no one and no thing.

With the courageous spirit of the King of Beasts within his breast, he goes forth and meets all opponents.

And in the end he conquers; for he, too, has been battling for the right.

William Farnum returns to his favorite blue-shirted characters in "The Heart of a Lion." It is the kind of role he likes, and the kind in which the great motion-picture public like him most. Adv.

Incredible Growth of Red Cross

The rapid growth of the American Red Cross since the United States entered into the war seems almost past belief. The latest returns from the Red Cross Bulletin given out after the results of the stupendous Christmas drive were reported, show a membership of 23,475,000, about twenty-two percent of the country's population.

This tabulation does not include reports from the territorial, insular and foreign possession of the United States.

The response of the people to this great government organization, doing wonderful relief work all over the world as well as in the war zone, speaks for itself of the patriotism now rising a great, surging tide all over the country.

It is particularly interesting to follow Red Cross work and see, not only the amazing increase in its extent, but the picturesque, unusual features developed by its ingenuity.

One of its latest ventures is the purchase of necessary articles to supply kitchens and material for serving the population of the Italian village of Spreziano, in the midst of the danger zone.

The inhabitants of Spreziano engage actively in the manufacture of wooden cases for oil and gasoline—a war industry—the Red Cross assisted the Italian Government in moving the inhabitants to another location, where their industry will be saved to the country.

One of the most helpful things the American Red Cross has done in France is the opening of a series of canteens, where soldiers on leave, worn out with trench service, are given comfortable quarters where they can eat and sleep well, instead of having to wait long hours for trains at uncomfortable junctions, subject to bombardment. These canteens are equipped with shower baths and clothing is put thru a process by which the "cooties" brought from the trenches are killed. Then amusements are provided and altogether the men have such a good time that they sit around and sing and talk all night and actually do not want to go to their bunks. This rest at the canteens sends them back home in different spirits from those with which they leave the trenches.

The French Government is bearing most of the expense in this canteen work carried on by the American Red Cross.

Pacifist Fruition

The situation in Russia, at which the world stands aghast, is the perfect fruition of the pacifist theory. Its logic is unassailable. What Russia suffers is precisely what any people invites which puts its faith unreservedly in the doctrine of non-resistance.

Russia will not fight. That part of Russia which consents to have Trotzky act as its spokesman is willing to accept the most disgraceful terms rather than endure further war. It is literally peace at any price which the "Red" government is trying to foist upon this former great empire.

But even such a prostrate attitude is not enough for the all-conquering Germans. "We are prepared," pompously declares Von Kuehlmann, "to conclude a peace which corresponds with our interest." In other words, Germans are ready for a German peace. And the meaning of a German peace need no longer be conjectured by anyone. It is precisely defined by the Prussian horde now hurrying toward the Russian capital.

The kind of "peace that corresponds with our interest" would be the same in France and Great Britain as it is in Russia. It would be the same in America as it is in eastern Europe. Prussianism is the same far from home as it is near home. In Russia one sees the perfect working of the Pan German idea, with might in the saddle and right trampled under foot.

Russia reaps what her self-appointed leaders have sown. A nation built on unconditional pacifism is a home on sand, subject to all the rains, floods and winds of passion which afflict the world. It was but three steps from czarism to Trotzkyism. The former had sins enough to answer for, everyone knows; but at least under the czar Russia could hold up its head among the nations. If Trotzkyism is preferable, we await the demonstration.

Helpless, despicable Russia, ruthlessly pursued by an enemy she has not wronged and will not fight, robbed of vast territories ruined by foes at home and abroad and now to be ground down by penalties that would tax the treasure house of a Croesus to pay—poor, distraught Russia teaches the world a lesson that some in the world may yet need to learn. It points the moral that force—naked, unfeeling, un pitying force—is still an important element in the equation of national life.

If any American still has doubt concerning the meaning of a German peace, let him turn an eye on Russia. Pacifist Russia is not one whit worse than a pacifist America might become. A government built upon hot air goes the way of hot air products.

"A peace that corresponds with German interest" corresponds with no other people's interest. Russians, one may assume, are beginning to appreciate the fact. The world should take it to heart.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Poetry For Today

SPRING SONG.

Have you seen it? Have you felt it?
Have you noticed anything?
Have you heard it? Have you smelt it?
Don't you see a sign of spring?
Are your senses all so lazy?
That you cannot feel the thrill?
Do you think I'm going crazy?
Well, I haven't, but I will.

With a shocked and pitying kindness
I perceive that you are dense;
I am grieved to note your blindness,
And your dulled and sodden sense;
I had hoped you might have hearkened
To the sign that speaks so loud—
But your intellect is darkened,
And your soul looks through a cloud.

Spring is coming—don't you know it?
Are you blind and deaf and dumb?
Are you not sufficient poet
To perceive when she is come?
Can't you see above the city
That the sky's a softer blue?
Can't you feel it? What a pity!
Damn the luck—I'm just like you.

Seed Corn!

If we ever planted good seed, we should do so this year.

Good seed is the greatest foundation for a good crop.

We believe you should test each and every ear of corn you plant this spring. To do this we must begin early. If you will come to our store next we will show you one good way it can be done. DON'T forget the date. Various farmers' corn will be shown.

Mr. R. C. Gauch, of the Extension Department of the Ohio State University, was here this morning and heartily approves the system in which we are conducting these tests.

Now it is up to each and every farmer to co-operate.

Good seed will help old Fayette lead.

HOW JOE FOUND HIMSELF

CHAPTER FIVE.

At the recruiting station Joe met many other boys near his own age. They were marched aboard a train and started for the big training camp late that night. During the long ride Joe had plenty of time to look back over what he had done—and he was glad. GLAD, that at last he had found some definite thing to do. The car was stuffy and cold and there was a lively game going on down at one end amid much snapping of fingers and pleading voices of "come on you 'til seven, what's detained you so long—come now, gotta get money for smokes before we get to camp, oh, boy! there you is." Joe watched it all and was no mean crap shooter himself, but somehow, tonight, things were different and he didn't feel inclined that way. He had not gone to bid Irma good-bye and now as he sat there he wished he had, "aw, well I'll drop her a card from camp and blow into see her the first time I get home" he thought to himself. And then a bit later he continued, "she's going to make a swell wife for some guy and I hope it won't be Mel Houston." In the small hours of the morning they drew into the station at the camp and a sergeant marched them off to their barracks. Someone at Joe's elbow murmured as they marched along, "a fine looking bunch of porch climbers to make into soldiers. Pipe that skinny guy with the cigarette. He'll flop sure the first day they work him out." Joe looked at the speaker and laughingly said, "you never can tell, he might fool us. Those legs of his look as if he could be the first over the top without much trouble."

Joe liked this new found companion. He was a bit husky, much older than Joe, with a ready wit and always willing to take things as they came. His name was Jim Saunders and when Joe found he had been assigned to a cot along side his he was happier than ever. And this is the way he found his bunkie and formed a friendship that was to last a long, long time.

They all hurried to bed for they had to pile out at five-thirty that morning to be vaccinated and have their uniforms issued to them. Just before Joe went to sleep that night he made a resolve to himself. "I'm in this thing and I'm going through with it to the limit. A fellow doesn't have to stick to being a private if he doesn't want to."

and always all through her long life in sunshine and shadow, in all her trials and tribulations she was faithful to her trust.

In the more recently passed years she has suffered greatly with that dread and malignant disease, cancer, but patiently she bore her sufferings, knowing full well that her earthly course was almost run, her life work all complete, all well done. She only awaited the time when to her should come the call from Him who is all in all when she'd gladly lay life's burden down and surely there awaits for her a crown; a golden, thickly jeweled-studded crown.

Shall I tell you of braver battles than Ever were fought by valiant men? Of Kinglier victories won?

Shall I tell you where is the battlefield and when?

Not on gory fields all thickly strewn in fire and smoke and war and shattering shock

Of bursting shell and hiss of cannon's plunging shot.

Are those bravest of battles fought, Neither with sword in the hands of valiant men

Or brilliant thoughts on scrolls transcribed With nobler, mightier pen.

But, down deep in the walled-up hearts of the Queenly mothers of men.

Down deep in the walled-up hearts of Queenly women who never yield but silently bravely do their parts,

There is the battlefield.

Where the bravest of battles are fought and Kingliest victories won, Only less brave, only less Kingly than the battle that was fought for the sin of the world and the victory won, over death and the grave

By God's own Princely son.

SMASHUP OCCURS ON PAINT STREET

A smashup occurred on Paint street Monday, when Dr. Roy Brown's Oakland automobile lost a rear wheel while endeavoring to prevent striking a horse and buggy.

The Larrimer Laundry truck was going down Forest street toward Paint and was turning west on Paint, when Dr. Brown was in the act of turning into Forest street, and it was only by wrecking a rear wheel of his machine that he prevented the car striking the buggy which appeared at the crossing about the same time.

Y. W. C. COURT GROUP

The Y. W. C. Court group will meet Monday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Jesse Cross on E. Court street.

MEMOIR.

Mary Margaret Harrison Vance. Almost one hundred years ago, away back in 1827, when Fayette county was still in its infancy, Aunt Mary Vance was born. She was the only daughter of General Batteal and Elizabeth Scott Harrison, who were early pioneers of northern Fayette county. Aunt Mary's birth and long life of almost 91 years was almost co-tempore with the birth and life and growth of Fayette county, up to the present time.

After 16 years of carefree and happy girlhood she became the wife of Thomas N. Vance, who died in 1874, after 34 years of wedded life, leaving her the widowed mother of eleven children, 9 of whom were living at the time of the father's death and 2 having died in the interim.

Aunt Mary was a member of the M. E. church at Madison Mills, and also in reality a true Daughter of the American Revolution, because both of her grandsires (paternal and maternal) were soldiers of the Revolution and her father a soldier who fought in the war of 1812 and '15. She was also the sister of two brothers who fought in the Civil War of '61 and '65, and the mother of a noble boy. (Her eldest son, Robert Vance) who followed the flag to the southland and never came home to mother, and yet again she was also the grandmother of another noble boy, Walter Satchell, who as a volunteer awaits the call to follow the flag to the lands beyond the sea, in this present war for God and humanity.

Aunt Mary was one of the women of whom it is said: "Her home is her world; her children her jewels."

A noble wife, a noble mother. One of the Queenly mothers of men who lock down deep in their walled-up hearts their griefs and their sorrows, and silently, bravely do their parts,

PRICE OF 1918 CROP IS $2.20

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson raised the government guaranteed price for the 1918 wheat crop as high as $2.25 a bushel in one primary market and in varying sums in all other primary markets except four. The Chicago price was put at $2.20.

Acting under authority of the food law, the president thus met the agitation in congress for higher prices and took steps to stimulate production and prevent holding back the crop while the agitation was going on. The prices fixed, the president declared, would assure the producer of a reasonable profit.

On the basis of No. 1 northern spring wheat and its equivalents, the president fixed the prices as follows: Chicago, $2.20; Omaha, $2.15; Kansas City, $2.15; St. Louis, $2.18; Minneapolis, $2.17; New York, $2.28; Philadelphia, $2.27; Baltimore, $2.27; Portland, Ore., $2.05; Los Angeles, $2.10; Galveston, $2.20; New Orleans, $2.20.

AFTER SLACKERS

(By American Press)

Columbus, Feb. 25.—Military police from Camp Sherman and federal and city officials conducted a wholesale raid on Columbus saloons for alleged deserters from the army and navy, alleged "slackers" and those alleged to have failed to file their questionnaires. Between 250 and 300 young men were gathered. Many of the young men were able to establish their innocence and were released. Some were able to do so without being taken to jail.

BOLSHEVIKI SURRENDER

(By American Press)

London, Feb. 25.—The Bolshevik government, represented by Nikolai Lenin and Leon Trotsky, has accepted Germany's peace terms.

Thus, apparently, the Russians are prepared, in an effort to stop the inroads the Germans are now making into their country, to add to the enemy's already vast holdings more of Russia's most valuable western territory, extending from the Gulf of Finland southward to the Black sea, and even to withdraw her troops from Finland and give back to the Turks what has been taken from them in battle.

The surrender seems subject. Russia is immediately to send a delegation to Brest-Litovsk, there to discuss with German representatives the final details of the peace and sign the compact.

At last accounts the German armies in the east were giving unheeded to talk of peace, but on the contrary were methodically pushing forward their line over the more than 500 mile front from the Gulf of Finland region to Volhynia and still nowhere meeting with any systematic attempts to hinder their progress.

Numerous additional towns have been captured and several thousand more Russians made prisoner. In addition, nearly 3,000 German and Austrian prisoners of war have been liberated by the invaders. Reval, Russia's principal port on the Finnish gulf, is being rapidly approached, notwithstanding the snow covered roads. The troops are being pushed forward in forced marches, the desire of the German high command evidently being to capture the port, which would be available, if necessity arose, as a base for operations by a fleet of war vessels against Kronstadt and Petrograd.

Meanwhile the internal situation in Russia continues chaotic. So bad have conditions become in Petrograd that a state of siege has been declared by the military authorities. Looting and other reprehensible deeds will result in sentences of death, it is announced by the Bolshevik authorities and all explosives must be immediately turned in to the authorities on pain of the holders being declared outlaws.

Roumania, cut off from her allies through the disaffection of Russia, at last has entered into formal peace negotiations with the central powers. These pastmasters in Teutonic allied places, Von Kuehlmann and Czernin respectively the German and Austrian foreign ministers, and Radoslawoff, the Bulgarian premier, are treating with M. Averesco, the Roumanian premier, at a point near Bucharest. Doubtless, as were the terms imposed on Russia, the peace conditions that will be offered Roumania will be hard ones.

On the battle fronts nowhere has there been an engagement of great dimensions. On the line in France there have been several patrol encounters, with the French the aggressors against the Germans, of greater than usual violence. The artillery activity all along the front continues violent on isolated sections. The Germans again have tried to outgun the Americans in their sector northwest of Toul. As on several former occasions, the Americans retaliated with such fierceness and accuracy of aim that the enemy desisted.

BLAZING A TEUTON TRAIL

IN THE WAKE OF THE HUN. FRENCH OFFICIAL PHOTO. © COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC INFORMATION, SUPPLIED BY AP.

It is a simple matter to follow the trail of the slowly retreating Teuton army. Wherever the Kaiser's soldiers went there will be found ruin and desolation. The picture shows part of a once thriving French town, which was recaptured by the French in the Alsine district.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

The following letter was written to Mr. Henry Ward, this city, by his brother, Roy:

Camp Merritt, Cresskill, N. J.

Dear Brother:

Well, Tod, I thought I'd drop you a line (I know you like to fish) and let you know I am still in the U. S., and feeling fine. I sure hope you are all the same.

Oh, Roy, where do we go from here? I think about the next time you hear from me I will be—

I am sending you a copy from a newspaper clipping I cut from a paper here, and I would like to see it printed in the Herald as I think it is fine.

Always remember I am coming back sometime.

Your brother,

PRIVATE ROY WARD,

First Motor Reg., Signal Corps. A.

E. F.

The clipping referred to by Private Ward is given below:

'A MOTHER'S PRAYER FOR HER SOLDIER SON'

Oh God of infinite mercy, hear the mothers of this land as we plead before Thy throne for the loved ones we are sending forth to battle for the right.

Though our hearts are bowed with sorrow, we pray not for ourselves; for our prayers, Oh God of love, are for the priceless treasures of our lives. We are willing to suffer, and if need be, die for our country. We would gladly give our lives to save these loved ones, dearer to us than life itself, who are going out to fight foes, seen and unseen; to face all horrors of the battlefield; and some, perchance, to die that others may live.

But by no word or look will we hold them back when duty calls them.

Give them manhood to meet this supreme test of life; give them strength, of body, of mind and soul, to do battle for the right, and to succor the women and children; arm them with divine power to smite evil; fold them in Thy loving arms.

Yea, though they walk through the valley of the shadow of death may Thy presence banish every fear and Thy staff comfort them.

For three long years the men of our allies have battled for us as for their own homes, and loved ones have endured the sorrows which now we must face. Our men must now go forth to help save us from ruin and the world from barbarism. We suffer—but we glory in their manhood. We dedicate our lives to this great cause. That we may serve behind the lines while they carry forward the flag of civilization.

The prayers of a world in agony, for which these loved ones are fighting, are lifted up to Thee. They are offering all that earth holds dear; because they have heard Thy voice calling them to the noblest work to which lives were ever consecrated. Thy love, Oh God, Our Father, excels all human love. So we leave them with Thee. To Thee have we committed them. They are Thine, created in Thy image. Into them Thou hast breathed the breath of life, in its largest and divinest sense. In their sacrifice, offering their lives that others may live, they are following the footsteps of the Son of God Himself, who died to make man free from the power of evil.

We trust them, Oh, God, to Thy infinite love and ever watchful eye. Hold them as in the hollow of Thy hand, for they are doing Thy work

The Ohio War Board Says

Today

Every public eating place and every household should be on a victory bread ration today.

"Victory bread" is bread containing 20 per cent of wheat substitutes. From now on every baker, big and little, is required to mix 20 per cent of other cereals with wheat flour for making bread.

This admixture may not produce as nice a looking loaf, although it will be just as wholesome.

Make sure that your baker is supplying you with victory bread. The other fellow who is turning out a better looking loaf may not be using the required amount of substitutes.

Housewives doing their own baking should use more substitutes than the baker. The baker must produce a bread that will stand twelve to twenty-four hours delay and handling before reaching the table.

The real 100 per cent victory bread for the households is corn bread, corn cakes and buckwheat cakes.

and fulfilling the teachings of Him, who saith as never man saith, when He taught: "Greater love has no man than that he is willing to lay down his life for others."

AMEN.

JAP GOVERNMENT AGENTS INSPECT GREENE CO. STOCK

Choosing Greene county sheep as representative of the flocks of the country, Dr. Issa Tanamuri, one of a special commission sent to this country by the Japanese government to inspect stock, visited this county, Friday.

Dr. Tanamuri, who had met J. C. Williamson, president of the American Oxford Down Record association at a meeting of that association in Chicago some time ago, called upon Mr. Williamson, who during the afternoon took him to the more prominent sheep farms of the county in order that he might inspect the various breeds.

He inspected the flocks of the following growers: James Bickett, Lincoln sheep; Raymond F. Grieves, Cheviots; R. D. Williamson, Merinos; H. H. Cherry, Dorsets and J. C. Williamson, Oxford Downs.

Dr. Tanamuri said that the flocks he inspected here, were the best of their kind he has seen since he has been in this country.

The Japanese government sent a commission consisting of four agricultural experts to this country to inspect stock. One will inspect horses, another cattle, another hogs and the fourth sheep. They will not do any buying, but will report the result of their investigations to their government, which will then send out literature to the stock growers of the country containing information they gained. Dr. Tanamuri said that he would report the flocks here as representative flocks of the country.—Xenia Gazette.

WHEAT PROSPECTS GOOD IN FAYETTE

A little journey about Fayette county at the present time shows that most of the wheat is in good condition and apparently little damaged by the recent cold weather when no snow was upon the ground.

Taken as a whole the wheat presents a better appearance than usual at this time of the year, and farmers generally are hopeful of a large crop.

DAILY REPORT TO BE MADE

(By American Press)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The railroad administration is to be furnished daily with reports, not only on the car needs for the food administration, but for the allies as well.

Within a few days the food administration announced, it will complete an organization to collect this information. The allied food agencies will supply their demands direct to the food administration and domestic requirements will be reported by regional transportation agents to be named.

The daily report plan was decided on in response to the declaration of Director General McAdoo that he would furnish all the cars necessary to move food if the food administration would notify him where the food to be moved was located. In a statement which precipitated the discussion, Food Administrator Hoover had asserted that railroad congestion and lack of cars threatened the east with a food shortage and had retarded the food administration's program for feeding the allies.

"The food administration directly purchases only a minor proportion of the foodstuffs for the allied governments," says the latest announcement. "The bulk of this foodstuff is purchased directly by the allied agencies with the assistance of the food administration. The arrangements of transportation rests in the allied agencies and their complaints as to car shortages and delayed movement have hitherto been addressed directly to railway points and the food administration has been generally informed."

"The food administration has now directed the allied agencies to furnish it daily with their requirements in order that they may be transmitted to the railroad administration."

"The most serious problem is the car needs, due to delayed movement of last year's crops and of live stock from the primary country points to the interior terminals, the mills and the manufacturing centers, where they can be purchased for export and domestic supply. The petition of these needs to the railroad administration is being met by the appointment of regional transportation agents for the food administration—already established in Chicago and proposed at New York and Atlanta. Their agencies will secure and furnish information as to car necessities for the primary movement of foodstuffs to the regional railway administration."

LT. PAUL HUGHEY NOW AT THE FRONT

Relatives of Lieutenant Paul Hughey Sunday received a cablegram from Lt. Hughey stating that he had completed his training and was leaving for the battlefield.

Lieutenant Hughey has been in France a number of weeks, and was in training somewhere near Paris, it is thought.

His cablegram while briefly stating that he is on his way to the front for active service, indicates that a large number of American aviators are now at the front, as he entered the service sometime after recruiting for the service opened, although he has completed his course of training in almost record-breaking time.

GOES ASHORE IN BLIZZARD

(By American Press)

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 25.—The crack Red Cross liner Florizel, from St. Johns for New York by way of Halifax, tilted up on the ledges near Broad Cove 20 miles north of Cape Race, during a blizzard, and it is believed that all on board were lost.

The steamer struck early in the morning while fighting her way through a blinding blizzard. In a few hours she had pounded to pieces on the rocks and her hull had settled under the battering until she was almost submerged.

There were 77 passengers and a crew of 69. A number of bodies have been washed ashore.

The bodies washed ashore include those of Joseph Kean and Robert Snow, passengers, and James Long, a sailor. Snow was one of six noncommissioned officers of the Newfoundland regiment, which was proceeding to Toronto to join the royal flying corps.

A message said that four or five men were seen to rush from the forecastle at intervals, when the wash of the sea permitted, and wave for help. At that time it was impossible to do anything for them, but there was a faint hope that with the arrival of life-saving apparatus some survivors might be rescued.

A relief train from this city soon reached Broad Cove, two miles from the wreck. It carried, besides physicians and nurses, a party of naval gunners with rocket-throwing apparatus, by means of which it was hoped to get a line over the ship.

The coastal steamer Prospero, equipped with life-saving apparatus, from Placentia bay, and four steamers from this city have been sent to Broad Cove. Should the weather moderate there was thought to be a chance that the steamers might be of assistance.

While the stern of the Florizel was submerged, her bow, resting on the ledge, was partly out of water. Mariners hoped that in addition to the five persons seen near the forecastle other survivors were huddled in the forward part of the ship and might still be saved.

Naval gunners shot a line across the bow of the partly submerged ship, but waited in vain for it to be hauled aboard.

The Florizel sailed from here with a large number of passengers and a cargo which included 10,500 barrels of dry codfish and herring for New York, and 1,200 barrels for Halifax, her only port of call between St. Johns and New York. The ship herself was valued at $1,000,000.

NO ORDERS FOR MOVING SELECTS

So far no orders have been issued to the Local Board of Fayette county for moving the final contingent of the first quota to Camp Sherman, although such orders are expected at any time.

It is expected that within ten days the final contingent will be in camp, and because of the large number of enlistments recently, this contingent is expected to be very small.

WORST WINTER IN YEARS.

Snow, wind and extreme cold caused more colds this winter than in years. Foley's Honey and Tar proved its worth in thousands of homes. Mrs. Edward Streby, R. 37, Clinton, O., says: "I think Foley's Honey and Tar is the only medicine for coughs and colds and recommend it highly." Fine for children. Blackmer & Tanquary.

HOWITZERS AT CAMP SHERMAN

(By American Press)

Chillicothe, O., Feb. 25.—Artillery selects in the Three Hundred and Twenty-third light field artillery regiment were overjoyed at word that to them will go the honor of firing the first trial barrage on the artillery range. The arrival of several 4.7-inch howitzers from one of the eastern cantonments was another cause for rejoicing on the part of the military men.

Machine gunners, artillery men with both light field pieces and the howitzers will participate in the barrage, the machine guns getting in the first shots, followed in order by the field pieces and the howitzers. The selects have had no actual practice with the pieces thus far, but have shown such progress in handling the dummy gas as to warrant giving them barrage fire problems to work out on the range.

The selects were greatly interested in the new howitzers, they being different from the 3-inch pieces used by the Three Hundred and Twenty-second artillery when it was on the range during the past three weeks. Several thousand shells are expected at any time for the big guns.

SUGAR PRICES ARE ANNOUNCED

Fred C. Croxton, Federal Food Administrator for Ohio, has announced the prices of cane and beet sugar must now be the same—9 cents per pound.

Other grades of sugar, he states, must be sold at prices not in excess of pre-war margins.

Retailers who purchase car load lots of sugar are not allowed to sell the sugar at a price representing their usual profit and the wholesaler's profit.

HILLSBORO WINS COVETED CUP IN BIG TOURNAMENT

Washington Goes Down to Defeat in Clash With Winners of Trophy After Which the Victors Have Easy Sailing—Final Clash Between Greenfield and Hillsboro

Hillsboro won the trophy at the second annual basket ball tournament held at Greenfield Friday and Saturday, defeating Greenfield in a very one-sided game after vanquishing Washington in probably the most interesting game of the series, Saturday afternoon. The game between Washington and Hillsboro was by far the hardest of the series, and the two teams were very evenly matched.

The semi-final games of the tournament Saturday afternoon, ended in the elimination of two more teams. They were South Salem and Washington. Greenfield won over South Salem and Hillsboro won over Washington 18 to 17.

In the Hillsboro-Washington game the result was in doubt throughout the entire game. The first half ended 13 to 10 in favor of Washington, but near the end of the second half, Hillsboro had two free throws given her, which clinched the game.

All players on both teams were so evenly matched that individual stardom was impossible. Reif of Washington held Johnson the Hillsboro left forward to two field goals, which was most brilliant performance.

The final game between Greenfield and Hillsboro was uninteresting from start to finish. Hillsboro took the lead in the first quarter, never to lose it. The score ended 29 to 14, with Hillsboro the undefeated champions.

Johnson, Hillsboro's left forward, proved the stellar attraction of the contest. Every time his guard went to sleep, it was two more points for Hillsboro.

Heaton and Daugherty, right and left forward for Greenfield, played consistent games.

The lineup for Hillsboro was: Robinson, rf; Johnson, lf; Frost, c; McCormack, rg; and Stultz, lg. The Greenfield lineup was: Heaton, rf; Daugherty, lf; McCullough, c; Healy, than ever." It will be held at Greenfield.

Plans are being made to make the next year's tournament "bigger better than ever." It will be held at Greenfield.

The lineup for Washington was: Lewis, rf; DeWees, lf; Boots, c; Wilks, rg; Reif, lg.

The lineup for Hillsboro was: Johnson, lf; Robinson, rf; Frost, c; McCormack, rg; Stultz, lg.

WORK OF BURGLAR

(By American Press)

Chillicothe, O., Feb. 25.—Melvin H. Franklin and wife had a narrow escape from burning to death when a burglar entered their room, took $52, poured a mixture of coal oil and benzine on the heads of his sleeping victims and set them on fire. When Franklin and his wife showed signs of awakening, the burglar ignited their heads and then made his escape. Mrs. Franklin screamed and awakened her husband, whose head was also on fire. Franklin pulled a blanket over the head of his wife and another over his head and extinguished the flames. Both were painfully burned.

GOES TO PRISON

(By American Press)

New York, Feb. 25.—Captain David A. Henkes, Sixteenth infantry, U. S. A., has been sentenced to dismissal from the service and confinement at hard labor for 15 years by a general courtmartial held at Governors island. Henkes, who is of German descent, endeavored to resign his commission, saying he did not care to fight against relatives and friends. He was ordered to this country and summoned before a general courtmartial at Governor's island, where he was formally charged with violation of the ninety-fifth article of war. This charge recited that, "having taken an oath of office in which, among other things, he swore to support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic," and that he would "bear true faith and allegiance to the same," had written the letter concerning his resignation.

SPRING PLOWING IS NEAR AT HAND

Spring, or winter plowing, is near at hand in Fayette county, and with a few days of the proper kind of weather the ground will be in condition to break once more.

Never before have such extensive plans been made for winter plowing as those now under way, because of the farm labor shortage and the desire to get as much ground broken early as possible.

Farm tractors, gang plows, riding and walking plows are now being arranged for the "spring drive" in order that the ground may be prepared so that late plowing will not interfere with planting and so planting, once started, may be completed as speedily as possible in order to insure full maturity of the crop.
